Workshop features money essentials for teens GETTING STARTED WITH CASH AND CREDIT

Making a lifetime of good financial decisions has a lot to do with getting a great start. At MSGCU, we're here to help!

Our workshop, Getting Started with Cash and Credit, is an excellent introduction to important financial basics.* The class is frequently offered at MSGCU branches around town and is free to all participants. Register at msgcu.org/workshops today!

"I learned a lot!"

Knowledge is financial power.

Attend this workshop to discover the power and impact of debit and credit cards, checking and savings accounts, mobile banking, text alerts, borrowing money, and understanding how to build your credit.

Past attendees have provided good ratings and positive comments such as "I learned a lot," "good ideas," and "I know this will help me." Here's what you can expect at the workshop:

- A welcoming from MSGCU team members
- Casual dinner, usually pizza or sandwiches
- Engaging 60-minute presentation
- Relaxed question and answer session
- Time after to get an MSGCU checking account or apply for an MSGCU Credit Card, parent/guardian approval is required

Remember, learning about money doesn't cost a thing!

Unlike most credit card companies and banks, MSGCU was created by members to serve members. We are a not-for-profit credit union which means we reinvest in our members and our community.

In other words, from your first debit card and auto loan, to your first investment plan and home mortgage, MSGCU will always do what's best for you.

*The Getting Started with Cash and Credit workshop replaces the Youth Checking and Lending workshop.

Next year it could be you!

Interested in what it takes to receive an MSGCU scholarship? Meet the 33 motivated and inspiring students that made it happen — including students studying skilled trades. Visit msgcuscholarships.org later this month to see our 2019 recipients and brush up on scholarship criteria — it's never too early!
