OUR FASHION AND BRANCH DESIGN

May have changed over our 60 year history, but one thing that has never gone out of style is our dedication to our members.

SEYMOUR OKUN

Has the distinction of having had the first account ever opened at the Credit Union and for good reason: he was a founding father of MSGCU and also served as the Credit Union's first-ever general manager. He taught music in Fraser Public Schools from 1953-1982 and always championed the credit union philosophy of "people helping people."

THIS HOME

Served as the Roseville Office in 1976. The sign on the door reads, "This office will be closed daily from 1 p.m. to 2 p.m."
